Setting up the CAD

When you begin your civilian roleplay, you want to make sure you are fully set up before doing so. Everyone roleplaying on the server must be fully set up on the CAD system.

Sometimes, the CAD can be difficult to set up. To make it easier for you, we have a step by step guide to help! Take a read through at your own pace. If you have any questions about the process head to #community-support in the discord.
